Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A young American artist. The young Madonna. A compelling connection between the two. A young artist paints a vision of the child virgin and sets mysterious forces into play. Overnight she is propelled atop the dizzying heights of the glittering international art scene where she encounters wealthy collector, Luc Bordeaux. For a single, dazzling Paris weekend she's Cinderella at the ball until reality intrudes and her fairy tale fades as swiftly as her trans-Atlantic flight home. But Mary Elle soon discovers that just like a fairy tale where ever there's light, darkness lurks in the shadows seeking an opportunity to extinguish it. Confused and frightened, her search for answers only leads her deeper into a gathering mystery. Sensing the stakes escalating with each new painting she is compelled to recreate, Mary Elle becomes trapped between her former ordinary life and her luminous new life made possible by the gift of the staggering talent she's always longed for. Unwilling to walk away and suspecting she's in danger of losing both her art and Luc, Mary Elle clings to her precarious hold on her dreams until the price of the destiny being held out to her is revealed and she must decide if she can bear to pay it. How can she choose? Preview: I thought we would enjoy dinner together, but if you are bored with the company. Mary Elle broke in, You're joking, right? Today has been like a dream. I spent most of it pinching myself when you weren't looking. I feel like Cinderella at the ball, but even fairy tale princesses have to face the inevitable chime...
